National League to Name Heydler in Tener's Place---Only One Plea for Record Turned Down at A. A. U. Meeting

Confers With Committee of Club Presidents and Will Be Elected on Dec. 10.

By FREDERICK G. LIEB. John A. Heydler, secretary-treasurer of the National League and acting president since the resignation of John K. Teser, will be elected president without opposition when the league holds its annual meeting in this city on Decemnal the vacancy, but we are able to say that only Heydler's name will come betemey for the National League; John R. Poster, secretary of the Glants; Judge Prancis N. McQuade and the inevitable been mentioned.

Since the armistice was signed there has been a lot of baseball activity under the surface. Some days ago Heydler was in conference with Presidents Hempstead of New York, Dreyfuns of Pittsburg and Baker of Philladelphis. An offer of the presidency was made to Heydler, and, like Barkis, he said he Though there is no question that Hyder deserves the promotion, it is considered a strictly business transaction by the National League. In the reconstruction days of baseball a really competent baseball man and not an or amental president engaged to give dig alty to the office is needed by the league.

Heyder has grown up in basebail, and was a National League umpire in the twelve club days. He has been the right hand man of every president since Harry Pulliam, and frequently has held e National League reins. Following s death of Pulliam in 1909, Heydler came acting president. He was a canbecame acting president. He was a candidate for the presidency at the December, 1909, election—but his supporters shifted to Brown in the celebrated Ward-Brown deadlock, which ended with the election of Thomas Lynch as the compromise candidate.

During the first year of Tener's term as president in 1914, Heydler ran the langue, as Tener's term as Governor of Pennsylvania did not expire until Jen-uary 1, 1915. After Tener announced last winter that he would devote the best part of his time to a private industry the business of running the league

DEMPSEY KNOCKS OUT FLYNN IN FIRST Porky Goes Through Ropes, Then Out.
